The Community's
Go-to for Supporting and
Empowering Change

Inspiring Hope,
Help and Healing

HelpLine leads a coordinated, community effort to connect people with community services and critical emotional support across Delaware, Morrow, Crawford, Wyandot, and Union counties. HelpLine's highly trained professionals offer compassionate support to anyone in crisis, seeking help or information, or just needing to talk. HelpLine services are 24/7, free and confidential.

HelpLine prevention programs influence change by promoting and advocating for the emotional health and well-being of all people. Through education and supportive activities, prevention programs aim to reduce possible harm from suicide and depression, sexual assault, relationship violence, and older adult isolation. Partnering with schools, agencies and the community, we work together to ensure all community members experience help, hope and healing.
